

Rollason's delight

INGLISTON, May 12: A highlight was the race arranged for several entrants of the recently completed Ecurie Ecosse Historic Tour. It was led throughout by Ted Rollason's GT40 from Valentine Lindsay's Jaguar D, which had quickly overwhelmed the Tojeiro Buick of Hugh McCaig.

Despite drizzle, Ron Cumming continued his record of GT victories, his Lancia Stratos lapping the field, except for the second placed Davrian, of Brian Fletcher. Duncan and Neil Fisher fought over third until contact eliminated both in the closing laps.

The Pre-'57 saloon start was chaotic after a lights malfunction, and on the restart on a wet track Rod Adlington led the similar A35 of Peter St Barbe, but Reg Palmer fought his Zephyr to the front never to be headed.

Peter Brown in his Dolomite dominated the Pre-'74 saloons from the Avenger of Jonathan Bell.

Campbell Chisholm appeared set to win again in FF1600 until he fell foul of the Swift of Jim Forsyth. The lead was gratefully accepted by Cameron Binnie. Geordie Taylor was next, keeping David Taylor behind, as Roy Low disposed of Thomas Irvine then Taylor, Roy just failing to catch Geordie.

Norman Taylor won the 2CV race from Nicholas Runcie after poleman Rab Renwick was harried by Graham Harper into hitting the barrier at Arena.

Mike Cannon ran away and hid from Olly Ross in the small saloon thrash. David Finlay took the up to 1300cc class.

The Clubmans/FF2000 field was fronted by Derek Ferguson from the green light from FF2000 pair Robert Mitchell and Derek Butcher. The latter storming to second.

Iain Gardner, hounded by the Manta of Alaster Cunningham, won the Kit Car and Saloon race.
